

2019 Mission Trip to Haiti!

The profound beauty of Haiti and its people are evident if you've ever traveled there. Despite its long-history of civil corruption and the inability to become a dominate player on the world stage, the people of Haiti are very resilient. Our ministry will continue its effort to help those who are in need. We won't forget them – there is hope in the lives of our Caribbean brothers and sisters! Join us; you'll be forever Blessed!
